8.3	All prizes won by crews sent by the Committee of Management shall, if capable of fair division, be their own property individually, but if incapable of division (as in the case of a cup or other such trophy) such prize shall be the property of the Club and shall remain in the possession of the Club Captain for the time being.
8.4	Fine built or first-class racing boats belonging to the Club must not be taken out by any member or crew without the permission of the Club Captain, Captain of Men's Rowing, Junior Coordinator or Captain of Women's Rowing.
8.5	All participants in rowing must be able to demonstrate both competence and confidence in and under the water by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Swimming at least 50m in light clothes ● Treading water for at least two minutes ● Swim under water for at least 5 meters Any member unable to complete the test must wear a life jacket whilst on the river.
8.6	Except in case of an emergency, no boat may convey more than its proper complement. Any member entering or leaving a boat shall place his leading foot lengthwise on the footstop. Any member or crew having finished with a boat shall be responsible for washing down, drying and conveying the boat and equipment to their appointed place in the boathouse.
8.7	The coxswain of any crew shall have command of that crew unless determined otherwise by the Club Captain, Men's Captain, Women's Captain, Junior Coordinator or Leisure and Progression Coordinator, and shall be responsible for the observation of Rule 7.9.

8.8	Crews of coxless boats shall be under the command of the steersman (irrespective of the steersman's position in the boat and notwithstanding Rule 7.7). The steersman shall be responsible for the safe navigation of the boat and for ensuring that the boat keeps to the Minster side of the river when proceeding upstream and the Station side of the river when going downstream. This rule of navigation shall also be observed by sculling boats.
8.9	No alteration or repairs to boats or equipment shall be carried out except as directed by the Boats Officer, the Club Captain, Men's Captain, Women's Captain, Junior Coordinator or Leisure and Progression Coordinator.
8.10	If any crews or members damage any Club or private property, or any damage occur to such property whilst in the use of any crew or member, the same shall be made good at their expense. Any damage whatsoever shall be reported to the Club Captain (or Captain of Men's Rowing, Captain of Women's Rowing or Junior Coordinator in the absence of the Club Captain) who shall refer such damage to the Committee of Management. The Committee, if of the opinion that no blame attaches to any member, may excuse the member from liability.
8.11	Any member may, by leave of the Committee of Management (and until receiving notice from such Committee to remove same within 28 days) keep a private boat or boats on the premises of the Club at such yearly rental as the Committee of Management shall from time to time determine, subject to the availability of racking space. Such boats shall not, in any case, be a charge on, or at the risk of the Club except as provided for in Rule 7.8. Priority for access to racking space shall be determined by the Club Captain.
8.12	Class B, C and S members may only row with the permission of the Club Captain and shall not represent the Club at any Regatta, except Coxing Members who may represent the Club as coxswains at regattas or heads.
8.13	Visiting oarsmen may only row with the permission of the Club Captain.
8.14	No member shall train on the Club premises or use any of the Club's Gymnasium equipment unless approval to do so has been obtained from the Club Captain (or Captain of Men's Rowing or Captain of Women's Rowing or Junior Coordinator in the absence of the Club Captain).
8.15	No member may compete under the name of York City Rowing Club at any Regatta unless the Club Captain's permission has been obtained (or Captain of Men's Rowing, Captain of Women's Rowing or Junior Coordinator in the absence of the Club Captain).

8.16	Any crew or member when finished with a boat (unless it is claimed by another crew or member) shall be responsible for washing it down.
8.17	No motor propelled vehicles shall be allowed in the Boathouse.
8.18	No boating shall take place when less than 6 steps are showing from the top promenade at the boathouse. When the river level is above the lower promenade members may only go on the water with the permission of a Rowing Officer or Member of the Committee of Management and in accordance with the guidance displayed in the boathouse.
8.19	With the permission of a Captain, members may go on the water after sunset or before sunrise but must carry lights in accordance with the Navigation Bye Laws. Boating after dark must not take place at all when the river level is over two steps above the lower promenade or when the level is rising. Members must not go beyond the limits of the street lighting along the river.
8.20	Members using private boats should also abide by rules 7.18 and 7.19 for their own personal safety.
8.21	No member shall park a motor vehicle on the forecourt at the main entrance to the Club or in the Club car park other than for attending the club for training and rowing, or on Club related activities, except with the specific permission of the Club Captain or Club Secretary.
8.22	No member shall park a bicycle in the Boathouse or Clubhouse (except with the specific authority of the Club Captain, Captain of Men's Rowing, Captain of Women's Rowing or Junior Coordinator.)
8.23	All club members shall observe the following rules when navigating boats on the River Ouse, unless being coached as a beginner or novice when the coach will specify the procedures:
a	Boats must not adjust fittings or remain stationary in the vicinity of landings. When going upstream, they must cross to the Minster bank as soon as it is clear to do so.
b	Boats going upstream must keep to the Minster Bank and use the Minster side arches at Scarborough and Clifton bridges. At other bridges the centre arch may be used if it is clear.
c	Boats going downstream must keep to the Station side bank and use the Station side arches at Clifton and Scarborough bridges. At other bridges the centre arch may be used if it is clear.

d	A boat wishing to overtake another boat must wait until the river is clear and must then move into the centre of the river and then proceed to overtake as quickly as possible. After passing the other boat the overtaking boat must regain its correct side of the river without delay.
e	Boats may only be turned on straight reaches where the coxswain or steersman has a good view both up and downstream. They must not be turned in a distance of 100 metres on the upstream side of any bridge. Coming downstream, they may not turn in the vicinity of the Club's landings, but they must go through Lendal Bridge and turn below Hill's Landings. They must return upstream on the Minster side and only cross to the Station side when it is clear to do so in the area of the Boathouse.
f	Boats may race each other only when accompanied by an Official Coach or Club Officer in a launch or on the bank. The boat with the more experienced coxswain or steersman must take the centre of the river but must slow down and drop back onto its correct side of the river if it could interfere with another boat or if directed by the Coach or Club Officer.
8.24	YCRC coaches and members must adhere to British Row Safe Safety Procedures and the guidelines contained within 'How Much How Often'.
8.25	In the event of a complaint a procedure is available for the members to follow. The procedure is published on the web site and available from The Chair, The Membership Secretary and the Welfare Officer.
9	RULES FOR SOCIAL EVENTS AND THE BAR Made by the Committee of Management under the powers given in clause 6 of the constitution.
9.1	The management of the bar shall be by a Stewards Sub - Committee appointed by the Committee of Management. The Steward shall act as chairman of this sub - committee. In relation to refreshments and in pursuance of the Licensing Act 2003 the following rules shall apply.
